You might be surprised to learn that more and more men these days want to be dominated by the women in their lives. This is the story of how my husband revealed to me his desire to be submissive to me and our journey towards a Female Led Relationship. Although it may sound unorthodox, we have a beautiful and healthy relationship that involves sexual experimentation and openness. My husband has learned to embrace his feminine side. And I am in complete control of our household.

This guide features advice on male chastity, feminization, open relationships, and arranging threesomes in a cuckold relationship. At first our marriage suffered a great deal because we couldn't communicate our true needs and desires. But after embracing a Female Led Relationship, we are both happier and more in love with each other. Maybe your relationship needs a change, too? These days, everyone has heard about bondage and domination in relationships. Maybe your man is a little girl at heart, too, and needs a strong woman in his life.

Let me tell your the story of my husband's transformations and my own shift into a more powerful role in our marriage.

Dreary

I found it lacking excitement and any hint of romance. It came across as the story of a woman who successfully turned her marriage into a chore.
