An exciting and wonderful find

By DMO

This is a complete turn from what I usually read. It didn't cross the invisible line in my mind... fantasy versus demonic, fighting versus gore, swoon and sigh versus graphic sex. You get the idea. The story is clean yet has plenty of '...sigh'. It's an adventure for young and old, a mix of reality and fantasy that I will be enjoying again and again. I have a LOT of books. Thousands. Enough to read a different book every day for over seven years and never repeat. I've written nearly four hundred reviews, only a small portion of what I have read. When I say I am going to take the time to reread a book that means it stands out significantly. As soon as I got to the end I wanted to go back to the beginning and start all over again. This is one that feeds the senses, emotions, inner child and hopeless romantic in me. It has earned every star and then some.

AN AMAZINGLY WONDERFUL READ!

By Shauna Wheelwright

I ADORE Debbie Peterson's books!

This book captured me from the very first paragraph and kept me enthralled the entire book.

I LOVE that there was a strong female character and enjoyed the mystery and bantering of the men trying to guess her real name...fun scenes!

The setting is PERFECT as it is in a castle, deciphering old pictures, old texts, and old folklore, while at the same time being in modern-day times where she wore jeans, hiking boots, and t-shirts and used the internet and email. I kept waiting for ballgowns and letter carriers as the descriptions took you back in time in such a VERY fun way.

The magic of fair folk and dragons and wizards is enhanced by a wonderful adventure of trying to find the dragon's heart gem...so captivating!

And the romantic interest between the two main characters gives you just enough details to make you sigh--so well written!

Such an AMAZINGLY WONDERFUL read!
Debbie is definitely one of my FAVORITE authors!
I recommend ANYTHING she has written!

A wonderful fantasy romance!

By Mae Clair

A lovely multi-layered tale that combines romance, myth and mystery in a gripping story that had me eagerly flipping pages in my Kindle. From the rich historical legends to the gorgeously-detailed settings and, especially, the enchanting characters who populate the worlds Ms. Peterson creates, this novel is beautifully beguiling.

An ancient Welsh castle, a kingdom beneath the waves, the missing heart of a dragon, Fey Folk, and a noble ghost are just a few of the fantastical people and places that populate the story. The main characters—Dr. S. E. DeSpencer (“Essie”) and Lord Garreth ap Daffyd are a couple you can’t help cheering for as they race against time to prevent a cyclic catastrophe that threatens Garreth’s world. Their romance is sweet and heartfelt. Essie is intelligent, determined and fearless, standing her ground when the need arises. Garreth is noble, protective, and decisive as a leader should be. I especially loved the ghost, Helyan, who has a supporting role in the story but deserves a complete novel of his own. Hopefully, that is coming.

As a counterbalance to the detailed history and intricate plot the author weaves into her story, there is banter and fun, too. A thread that runs from beginning to the end involves Garreth trying to decipher what the initials S. E. in Essie’s name stand for. And yes, we do find out, but you’ll have to read this wonderful tale yourself for the answer. Don’t miss another great adventure/mystery/romance from an author who excels at them!
