Review

From the reviews:

“This book summarizes the epidemiology, diagnosis, and treatment of common endocrine diseases. ... It is written for practitioners, both internists and subspecialists in endocrinology, but it is also useful for medical students to review during a rotation in internal medicine or endocrinology. ... It is succinct and can be used as a brief reference for managing patients in the clinic.” (Colleen Flynn, Doody’s Book Reviews, February, 2014)
