Not appropriate for kids; VERY disappointed!

By Janine

I bought this for my 9 year old son and decided to read it first. I am sorry that I also purchased the sequel. As a mother and English teacher, I do not recommend these books for kids. The sentence structure is poor and too long for children. The vocabulary is extremely complex. I have discovered error after error in punctuation and spelling. The story is told in first person from Mario's point of view and reads as if Mario is fighting in a real battle, with numerous references to pulling out a gun (for fireballs). The title, "Diary of..." can be deceiving for those interested in other "Diary of..." children's literature series. This series is better left for adult fans of Super Mario that enjoy fan fiction. If you're looking for quality fan fiction for kids, I'd recommend the author Mark Cheverton.

LOTS of errors in book - Maybe not the most ...

By jessica voss

LOTS of errors in book - Maybe not the most appropriate for 6 yo. I tend to skim over some areas when reading it to my kid, but he loves it. I've had to suffer the book 4 times since christmas. :(
