Are you in a book reading rut? Has it been too long since you picked up a good series? Has something been missing from your previous reads that allows you to put the book down? Well if your ready for a change this is the author for you! This a series you won't be able to put down and when you read the last line you'll be searching the internet wondering when her next book is to be released. This a fast paced book with great characters that you will love. Guardians, Angels, Demons, and romance, oh my! Buy it! You'll love it! And be sure to read her book not related to the series, but an excellent read: Cross My Heart.

OMG WITH ALL THE 5STARS.....

I bought this book because it had a ok story line and great reviews.....Once again it was a big mistake just by the reviews given. The first book was pretty decent but not great. Genesis aka Gee can be some what annoying. She a brat, know it all, thinks she is some kind of bad ass, and basically kinda of a bitch. Her great magical power is that she can see into the future. In book two she becomes a Demon hunter and let's see she still gets her ass beat . They train her to fight against demons when she herself is just a human ...this part of the store is a bit crappy at least give some super power or something semi believable. Despite that she comes off cocky. And a bad ass( yea I know I repeated it again cause she was that annoying). Which is dumb because she isn't the is always making good choices and is a know it all wannabe bad ass. The is the theme of the book. Then there is Seth ...can you say whipped much and puppy dog carter just jumps back on that train.They are both ok, but they are so wrapped up in Gee to me it makes them a bit unlikable....idk what book those other people read but I found it a waste of time and money.I keep thinking damn I bought the third book cause I like reading book series, it took me twice as long to finish this book cause it was so bad I stopped several times.....I say rethink before buying this book I wish had...just saying
