Enough Already.....

By Wolverine

When this series originally started, I enjoyed it immensely and couldn't wait for the next one. I wanted to find out who the killer was and who was behind everything happening to Noah. Now, I just want it to end. It seems to be going around in the same circles of: finding a dead body, Noah keeping secrets, and Charlotte acting like a child. I really want these two to shut up and color. Figure out where you are going in this relationship, stop the lies, and grow up. I was really hoping to learn these two were headed for their HEA and put everything about Force behind them. I love the work of Ms. Ford. I just think it is time for to put this one to bed.

Received an ARC for an honest review.

Frustrating!

By Watchdog07

If this series weren't on KU I would never read it. I would never pay $2.99 for what amounts to a short story. This story has been so long and drawn out that I'm ready to give up. This story could've been told in one or two books easily. I like the suspense part of the story, but the characters are ticking me off. She's childish and he's an a. The sex scenes are basically all the same and I usually skip over them. She's on her knees for a bit and then they have sex. Only thing that changes are her outfits. Please finish this.

Pulling my hair out.

By Amazon Customer

Seriously, seriously, seriously.... this is ridiculous. This book is like 50 shades the more you read it the more it just becomes laughable. He wants control, she wants to protest, he punishes her, she likes it, they start over. A never ending cycle. At least 50 shades had a freaking ending at the end of each book. End it already. I will NEVER start another book from this author.
